CHANGING TIMES

We lived in a world of constantly changing times. Wherever we looked, whether it was on the local, national, or world-wide scene, we observed a world that was being altered by a turmoil of change.

Of course, we realized that all of those changes weren't for the benefit of mankind. Nations were called upon to settle their differences. In our own country, the people realized that it was time to join together in a spirit of unity and brotherhood which was not based on color of skin.

However, if one had really surveyed the situation, things were not as bad as they may have appeared. There was and would continue to be a will to change for the better.

Nations had made efforts to smooth over their differences via the conference table. In that day a new president had been elected to add new vitality to the dreams of the American people.

"We do not succeed in changing things according to our desire, but gradually our desire changes. The situation that we hoped to change because it was intolerable becomes unimportant. We have not managed to surmount the obstacle, as we were absolutely determined to do, but life has taken us around it, led us past it, and then if we turn round to gaze at the remote past, we can barely catch sight of it, so imperceptible it has become."

--Marcel Proust

For these reasons, we, the yearbook staff would like to dedicate the 1969 LES ADIEUX to changing times.

PRINCIPAL: Mr. Walker

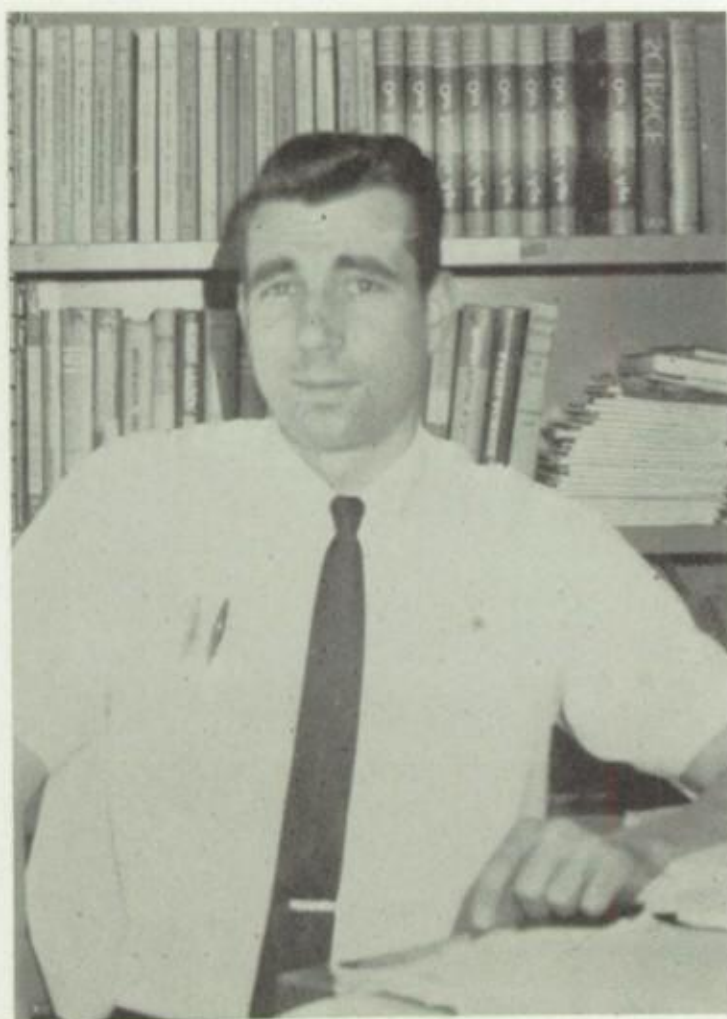

SUPERINTENDENT: Mr. Reimer

Where the Action Is

With the implementation of flexible modular scheduling the administration and school board decided many important issues. Under the dedicated leadership of superintendent, Rodger Reimer and principal, Richard Walker, Coleman High School gave students more opportunities to attain a better education.

Members of the Board of Jt. District No. 1 are: Wayne Van Vonderen, Mrs. B. A. Robinette, Boyd Rymer, John Holley, Ronald Anders, Lawrence Bittner.

Tempo Is Set By

The largest class of our school had another "banner" year. Led by the able leadership of class president Ken Camlek, the Junior class took an important part in moving the gears of Coleman High School.

At Homecoming the Juniors had the second place float and busily decorated the school. We made up skits and were ardent supporters of our football team. Our Homecoming representatives were Mary Thomson and Jeff Grzybowski.

Through the winter months the Juniors participated in many of the school activities. It was not uncommon to see Juniors working during after-school hours for various school functions. The results proved that the Class of "70" was necessary to the success of this educational institution.

Of course, the most important activity in minds of Juniors was our Prom. May 3 proved to be one of the most enjoyable and rewarding in the life of every Junior.

Awakening to the

The class of 1972 started out their first year of high school with eagerness.

They proved their spirited teamwork by wrapping the victory "V" for Homecoming, and taking third place with their float in the parade.

The freshman representatives elected were Nancy Henseler and her escort, Marvin Kuchta.

The freshmen, who were advised by Mr. McIlwee, Mr. Raymond, Mr. Ritter, and Mr. Krennek, plan to entertain the school by having a band dance.

Where can I find a size 22 1/2???

What's it all about, Alfie?

Well, here we go, away to our classes.

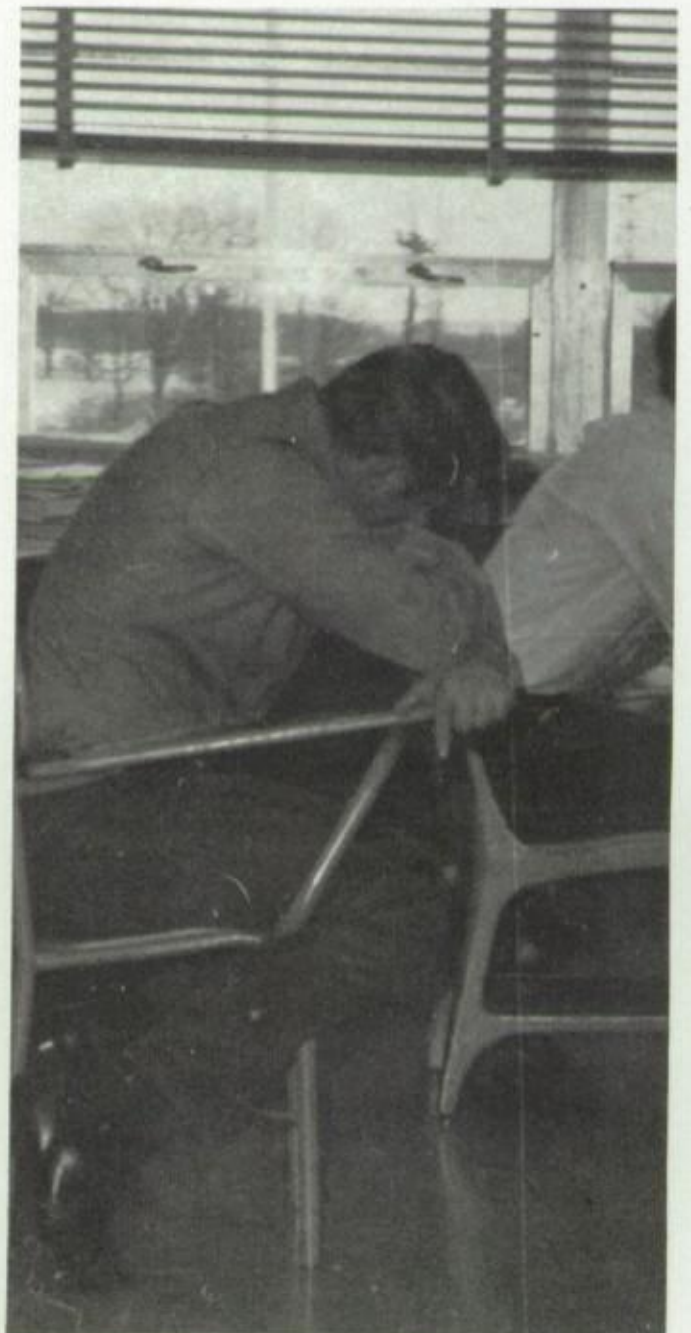

One learns many useful things in classes, like cutting up sweaters.

Class Snaps

But there are some who do work.

Hey! A class is a learning situation, not for a game of checkers.

Activities

Heaven in her eyes.

Take five!

Ageless Evening

The Junior class of '68 presented its prom, "Shangrila" on the evening of May 4. Couples began the evening by entering through an Oriental temple dominated by a huge jade green Buddha. Descending the stairway, to the sound of a brass gong, they were transported into a magical garden which featured a lighted fountain set in a sea of flowers. Dancing to the music of Gail Shepardson and his Orchestra, couples glided past purple mountains and flaming dragons. A flower entwined garden swing provided a backdrop for photographs. Refreshments were served from each of two pagodas on either side of the gym. Everyone enjoyed an evening of ageless memories.

Parade of stars.

Cougar Power '68

The Cougars marched on

The 1968 Homecoming took shape under the theme of "Cougar Power" which was selected by the Student Council. The newest, biggest part of Homecoming was that each class had a chance to build a large float. Upon completion, the floats took their place in the first Homecoming parade that the people of Coleman had enjoyed in a long time. Judges along the parade route gave points on appearance; the Freshman float won third prize, Juniors second, and the Senior float was the first prize winner.

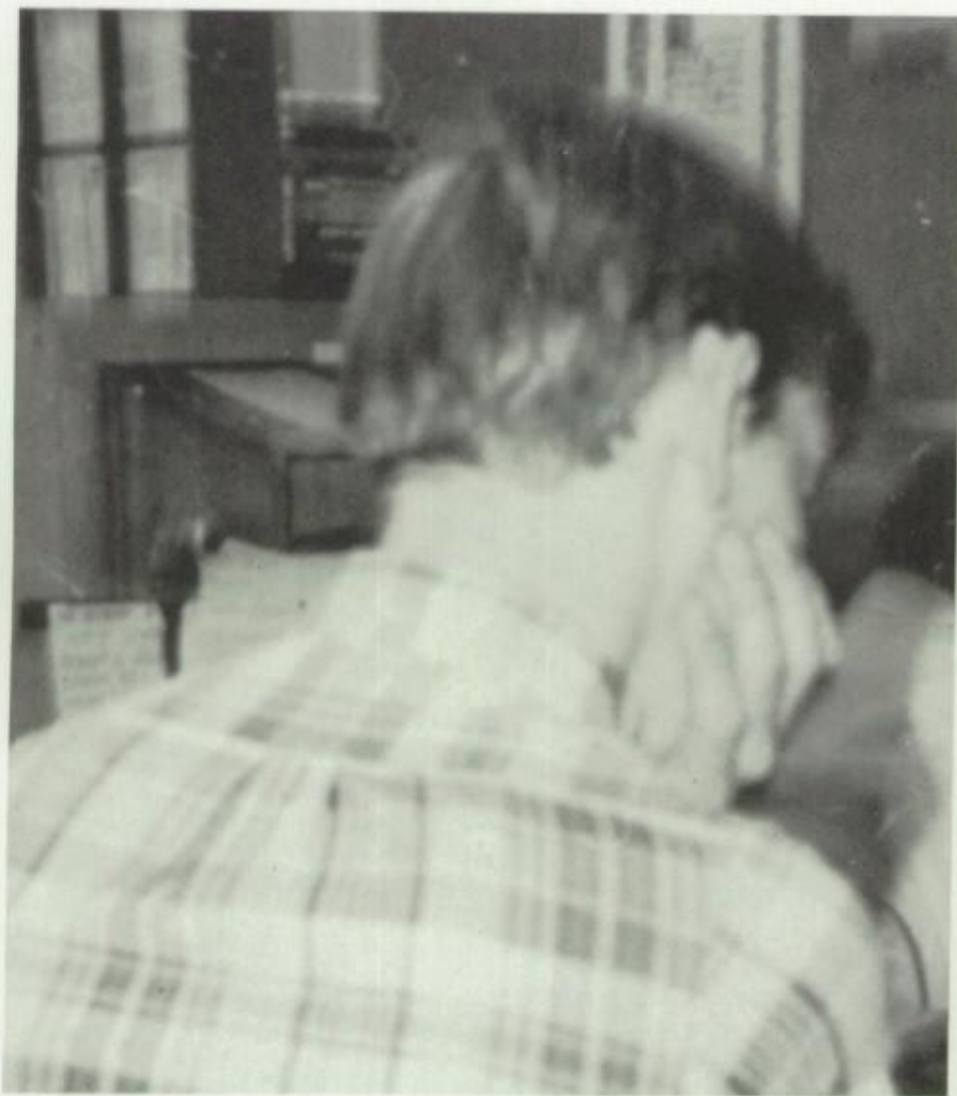

On Friday night the bonfire was a "glowing" success with the seniors capturing another first as they won the Yell Contest. King Mark Kovenesky, along with his fellow football captain, Larry Bittner, lit the bonfire.

Saturday afternoon the Niagara Badgers came to town to walk away with the points, 27 - 0, but the Cougar spirit hung on. Mark Kovenesky crowned the Homecoming Queen, Mary Lesperance.

Juniors "blew up" team spirit

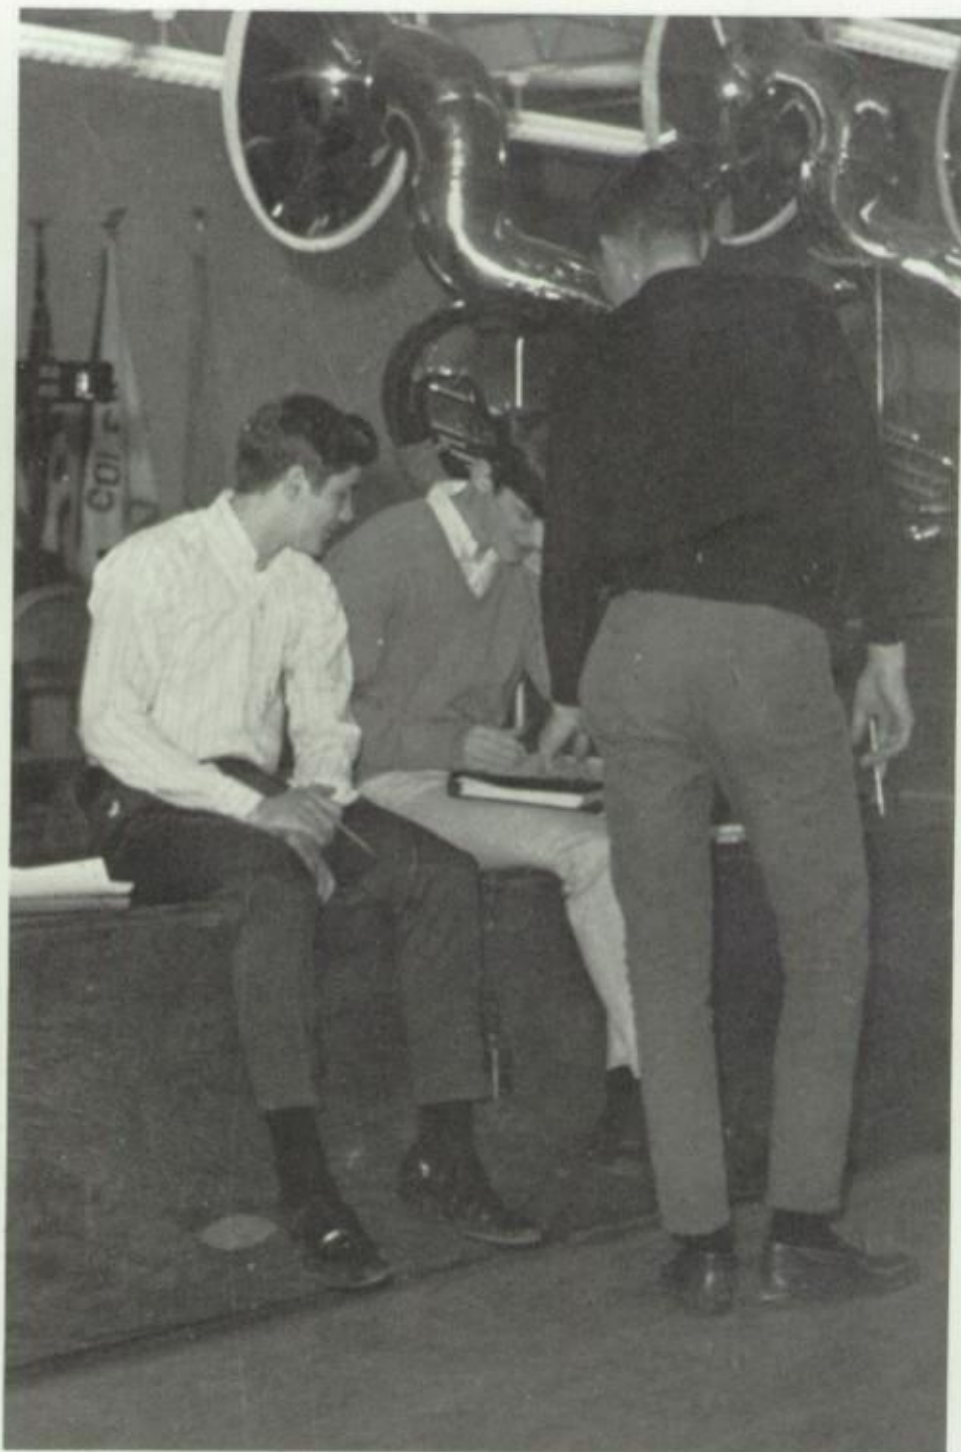

Homecoming weekend came to a successful end with the big Homecoming dance on Saturday night. The "Hinge," a band from Milwaukee, provided entertainment that brought all the festivities to a pleasant close.

I'm embarrassed!

Will you get out of here!

No, Herbie. We have to do it this way.

Now we know you want to be a girl.

Senior representative and Homecoming queen, Mary Lesperance, poses graciously with her court; Mary Thomson, Junior; Maureen Prestine, Sophomore; and Nancy Henseler, Freshman.

We've Got Spirit!

On Friday night the Victory "V" was the main attraction.

Stepping Out!

Under the supervision of Colleen Roenfranz, the color guard performed with stunning precision and showmanship at every football and basketball game. They also led the band in the parade at Oconto Falls for the District contest. Enough money was raised to purchase new green and white uniforms.

The majorettes entertained the crowd at the Homecoming game and added color to the band as they displayed their talents at the District contest in Oconto Falls.

In Search Of Responsibility

The Student Council was the center of many student activities at C.H.S. Under the leadership of president Mary Margis, the council strove to unite the student body, the faculty, and the community. Under its direction, faculty and student body compromised on a new dress code. Through the council's efforts, the citizens of Coleman enjoyed a Homecoming parade featuring large floats made by the classes for the first time in years. Other officers included vice-president: Tom Lesperance, secretary: Judy Graetz, and treasurer: Sue Finney. With the energetic help of advisors Mr. McIlwee and Mr. Meier, the club completed many successful projects.

The Book Behind The Scenes

Annual staff members could always be seen on the go, especially as the deadlines approached. Putting out the yearbook demanded a large amount of cooperation, determination and long and tiresome hours from all the staff members. Pages were laid out, proofread, and typed on master copies. In addition to laying out the actual pages, everyone was expected to sell advertisements and annuals. One could see that putting out the edition was no small job for the participating students!

For once Jan got caught taking those weird pictures.

Laying out pages was always a lot of laughs.

Leaders Through Excellence

The National Honor Society continued in its endeavor to promote leadership, scholarship, service, and character.

Under the mentorship of Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson, the N.H.S. engaged in a successful year.

In the fall, a pancake dinner was held in an effort to establish funds for a student exchange program.

Initiation for the new inductees was held February 20. The initiation night was highlighted with the enlightening speech of a guest speaker.

The officers were as follows: Mary Lesperance, President; Ken Camlek, Vice-President; Diane Greatz, Secretary; and Mary Margis, Treasurer.

Under the direction of Coach Feidorowicz our track team won conference ratings. The Cougars placed 4th in a field of 22 schools in the Oconto Falls Invitational Meet. The trackmen then went on to place 4th in both the M-O Conference meet and in the M-O Conference Relays. Mark Flink set a new record for our school in the shot-put; 53' 2 1/4", and Gary Bader ran a record 220 yard run in 23.1 seconds. Both of these boys went on to the state track meet. Mark Flink won the Class C individual title in the shot-put.

That times would and did change was unavoidable in that year of 1969. Modern science and technology were responsible for changing the lives of Americans from day to day. The citizens of the country were called upon to adapt to them, and most of all, to keep abreast of these changes.

That year the students of Coleman High were indeed faced with the challenge of changing times. The greatest and perhaps the most important in the long term was the introduction of modular scheduling into the Coleman school system. The student body was called upon to drop their old ideas of class scheduling and to adapt to the modular system.

With this change, independent study time was increased and could be fitted to the individual's needs. Faculty regulation of this free time was held to a minimum.

Everyone was called upon to make wise use of their time, perhaps by studying, research, or independent study projects. Everyone was called upon to use and develop their sense of responsibility.

It is our hope that the students who graduated and who will graduate in the future from this school will continue to use this responsibility in our world.
